Bronx, New York 10473

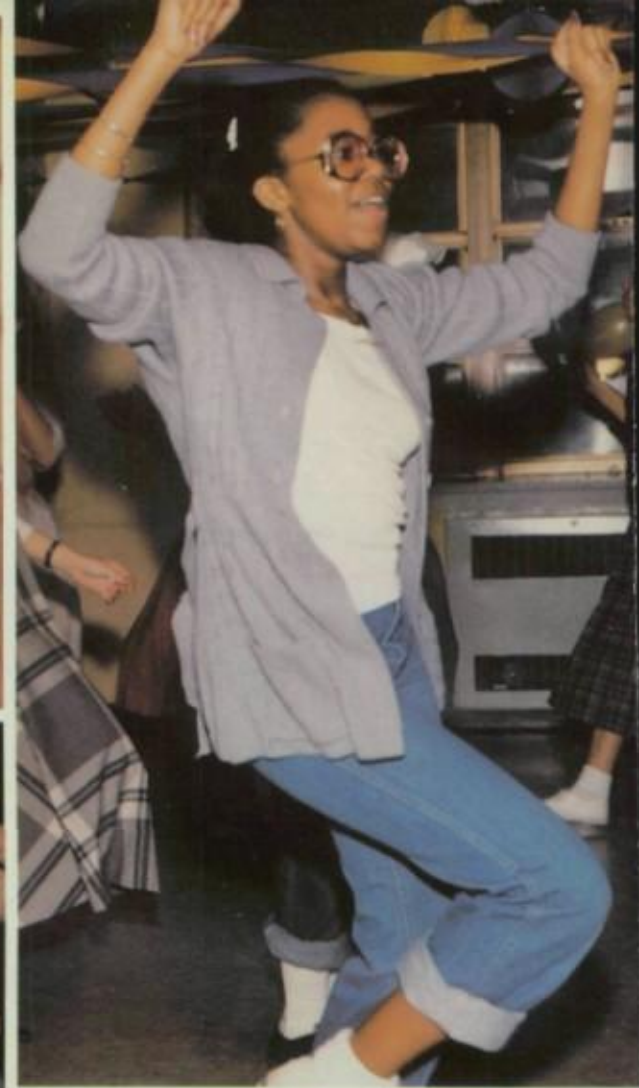

This yearbook is dedicated to Mr. Bennett Lubell, not to his memory, but to him-the man.

Mr. Lubell was a great man and a wonderful teacher. He will be admirably remembered by his students for his unique teaching techniques from poetry to CAELS to the study of man and nature.

Stevenson will never forget his unending dedication especially to the English department which he headed from 1970-1980.

FACULTY

Myrna F. A Wohlberg, Principal

Ladies and Gentlemen of the Class of 1981

It was not too long ago that you were welcomed to Adlai E. Stevenson High School. I am sure that at that time there was a feeling of excitement in anticipation of the adventure ahead of you. You soon found out that you would be held accountable for your actions; you had to study, develop skills, write reports, take regents, city-wides, and RCT exams and pass certain required courses in order to receive a diploma. Graduation was just a dream but now you are faced with the reality that your goal has been achieved. Indeed, you will receive your diploma which is evidence of your accomplishments.

Your stay at Stevenson High School, will now become part of your past. You will carry with you vivid impressions of classmates and teachers, of unforgettable experiences and occasions. Also, you cannot help but remember world events which might tend to influence your future aspirations. Changes in the economy, fighting between Iran and Iraq, the era of computerization, the hostages in Iran and the tragic earthquakes in Italy are but a few events which come to mind. However, you are now ready to embark upon the next phase of your life. Hopefully, all that you have learned at Stevenson High School has prepared you to meet the inevitable challenges that the future brings.

Now each and every one of you must make choices. Will you enter into the field of business, education, law, math, industrial careers, or politics? What will you do? This question can only be answered by you in the years to come.

You, the graduates of the class of June 1981, are our hopes for the future. Your present and future successes will be applauded and recognized.

Good luck and good health to each of you.

Sincerely,

"Should I Decide My Life's Destiny"

Oh, should I decide my life's destiny?
Let my life be ruled by mother's wishes.
Make her proud by following history:
To marry, grow old while washing dishes.
But that's not what I call a joyful life
I want to grow strong and stand on my own.
There is more to life than being a wife.
To do what I wish and do it alone,
And not have to depend on anyone.
But mother's wish to wed will soon be mine.
For life alone would seem to weigh a ton.
And to have someone to love is so fine.
But first I must go by what I decide,
Then I will be happy and satisfied.

Maria Cruz

"It's Wiser To Face The Truth Than To Pretend . . . "

It's wiser to face the truth than to pretend,
That every friendship exists forever.
But remember that a friend cannot be a friend
If he is changeable like the weather.
At one moment he tries to warm you,
With alot of love and affection.
Then like a strong wind he discards you,
And is off in another direction.
A true friend should be one who is favored,
And who does not constantly change.
A person whose friendship is treasured
And for no other you would want to exchange.
If these words can be proved untrue or false
My idea of friendship is at a loss.

Michele Sands

Arista, the National Honor Society, is an organization made up of Stevenson's top students. It provides service for school events as well as the community. Arista consists of three officers: William E. Blanks occupies the office of President, Charles Rice as Vice-President and Mabel Martinez as the Secretary/Treasurer. It is advised by Mr. R. Jeanette. Mrs. Myrna Wohlberg describes Arista as being hard working and always efficient.

The Seekers Club is a religious organization. Here students gather to express their different interpretations on scriptural verses. The president of the club is Jose Torres. The vice-president is Gregg S. Johnson. Mr. Anderson is the club advisor.

The Sea Explorers is an organization which is part of Scouting U.S.A. It owns two ships on which students are trained in navigation. There they also learn the rules of the sea. If a student wishes to join the armed forces they will receive advanced rating because of the advanced training provided by the club. Mr. Anderson- Skipper

Stevenson's three performing instrumental groups consist of the Senior Band and Jazz Ensemble conducted by Mr. Victor Pratts, and the Junior Band conducted by Mr. Salvatore Somma. These three bands perform marvelously each year at the annual Christmas and Spring Concerts. This year's Senior Band, as a result of their outstanding performance, has been named as the #1 High School Concert Band in the city. The Jazz Ensemble presently holds the honorary title of #1 High School Jazz Ensemble in the entire state of New York. Also, the Junior Band members, who are very talented freshmen and sophmores, are continually working their way up to becoming members of either the Senior Band or Jazz Ensemble. However, it can truly be said that these three groups are a true asset to the school's morale.

Feb 2. Dear Diary
Just got my program and it's really great.
I hope I can handle homework.

Feb. 3
Dear Diary
Just met a girl named Elaine. Insehung on her that I'm following her everywhere.

Feb 14.
Dear Diary
It's Valentine Day and I think
Cupid got me.

Feb 20.
Dear Diary
Just got my Senior photo and do I look Great!

Apr. 3, 4, 5.
Dear Diary
Senior Weekend was really great.
Caught two hours on the bus.

June 4.
Dear Diary
Took Elaine to the prom. Somehow we were separated on the dance floor. I wonder why?

June 24.
Dear Diary
Took Elaine to the Graduation Ceremony
I wish I could be with her. Looks like four periods of lunch wasn't enough.

May 6
Joined Future Home-

Where are the rest of the boys?

True Love

What shall I define true love as
Is it the physical attraction of humans
Or the greed of wealth in a large mass
Is it too great a task for man's plans
From a seed to an adult does it come naturally
Or must we strive at it daily, night and day
Love cannot be defined in all utmost actuality
Adam's love meant a death for mankind I'll say
Selfish, undefinable; yet love is beautiful
It can bring one momentary or everlasting joy
One cannot live without such love to be truthful
Some people are hurt by treating it as a toy
These words shall never fail to be felt by all men
Else let love for me become as if it were banned

Cynthia Forrest

The Experience Of Love

Wanting him to be a great part of me
His great kindness and love opens my eyes
Never, ever wanting to set him free.
Endlessly hoping our love never dies,
Always grasping for our last bit of breath
Before we embrace and express our love.
For we want to show our love before death
Comes and takes it away. For us to move
With the charges of our life and forcing
Me to part from his side with just a kiss.
His eyes so full of sorrow and tearing,
Knowing that our love must end, mine and his.
True love has its pleasures and its sorrow
Until we find love again, tomorrow.

Joann Rao

Lonely Night

My dark shadow slices into the Morning fog with magnificent grace.
As the morning light rises over
The horizon, only to be lost in my mind.
For I have searched and failed to find my real world.
My world lost within my mind
So calm, so subtle, so unreal.
For I have felt the world's morning chill;
For I cannot provide this world with my ideas;
It is like putting the wrong key
in the wrong lock.
I'm glad this is a dream,
And I wonder how it really seems
Not to have a real world.

Raymond Rivera

Hoping For Time To Be Together

Hoping for those clear sunny days,
Lazy afternoons,
Hoping for time to be together.
For sweet thoughts
Of you and you alone,
Beautiful daydreams,
But being together
Would be even better.
Hoping for time to be together,
For always and forever,
You and me alone wherever.
Hoping for time to be together.

A Little Bit Of Everything

Stevenson Has A Big Heart

"Search"

There are many Roads and paths in Life, that a person travels.

Some roads are wide, while, others are narrow. Some Roads are mysterious, while others have been less traveled.

Seek and you shall find that has been my motto. Search the world, Search Others, but most of all search yourself, and from that choose a road to follow!

Thaddeus Dunn

"Forget ... But, Remember,"

Forget the times you wouldn't speak,
Remember the wonderful ways we used to meet.
Forget the times you said good-bye;
Remember how you made me cry.
Forget the times we shared together,
Remember we still have each other.
Forget the times you weren't in sight,
Remember how we watched the stars at night.
Forget the times that you were up and I was down.
Remember how you cheered me up by acting the clown.
Forget the times you called me dear,
Remember the times you were near.
Forget the tears that fell without end,
Remember this we can still be friends.

Denise Pittman

"LIFE"

Life is a test if you don't do well on the test you fail
Life is an earthquake something terrible but if you look good you will find a safe place
Life is like fishing, you need strength and practice
Life is like winter cold and shivering

Finale

The curtain falls as encores fade
Like the gentle end of a summer breeze
And so is life as we reach our own
Finale.

We leave behind our memories
Of words we spoke and lives we touched
The dreams that we once sought live on Though we reach our own
